

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3025 - SB 3097

February 28, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Deletes mandated discounts at state parks as follows:

- Free golf for Senior Citizens on Mondays;
- Free Hunting and Fishing in state parks for Senior Citizens;
- Free hunting and fishing in state parks for Senior Citizens and disabled;
- 50% on camping fees for Senior Citizens and disabled;
- 50% discount on camping fees for state employees, and;
- Removes provisions that full-time members of the National Guard receive same benefits at parks as state employees.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Exceeds $100,000

Assumes revenue increases to the extent the above mentioned will pay full price to utilize state park facilities. The amount of increased revenues will depend on the number of affected individuals who will choose to continue using state park facilities without the discount. This number and the amount of additional revenue collected from these individuals cannot be determined but is estimated to exceed $100,000. For information purposes the total amount of revenue collected at such facilities for FY1998/99 was $20,300,000.
